ACTOR PROFILE

Mark Seow is a corporate trainer, screen & theatre actor, events & live streaming host/emcee, and Tarot astro-numerology practitioner. After 20 years in corporate training and the hospitality business, Mark woke up to new beginnings one morning and decided to explore his options in pursuing his love for performing in 2015. He has since appeared in numerous short films, TV Commercials and TV dramas locally. His passion to engage audiences lands him his theatrical debut as “Charlie” in Emily the Musical, and former co-owner and actor in a theatre company called “Wag The Dog Theatre Company”. At current, and aside to performing, he is engaged actively in an associate training capacity and learning & development consultant. He is most passionate in sharing concepts and models in ‘micro-jobbing’ and ‘maximisation of opportunities in the 4th industrial revolution’, and in guiding individuals in lifelong learning strategies and the requisite soft skills to gain and action upon in the age of disruptive technology. Mark holds a Master in Training & Development awarded by Griffith University, Bachelor of Science in Travel Industry Management from the University of Hawaii at Manoa, and Diploma in Hotel Management from the Singapore Hotel and Tourism Education Center (SHATEC). A professionally qualified learning & development professional under the Work-Skills Qualifications (WSQ) Framework of Singapore, Mark has attained the Diploma in Adult & Continuing Education (DACE) and the ACTA (Advanced Certificate in Training and Assessment).
