

THE URBAN ALCHEMYST

MARTINA CITRONI

REIKI MASTER & SOUND HEALER

My work is rooted in the belief that true luxury is inner balance.

Through Reiki and Sound Healing, I create deeply transformative experiences designed to restore harmony, clarity, and energetic alignment, offering a refined and personalized approach to holistic wellbeing.

MY SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

My spiritual journey began in 2020, during a period of deep personal transformation.

I started working on myself through daily meditation practices and regular sound healing sessions, discovering the power of vibration, presence, and energetic awareness as tools for inner healing and growth.

REIKI MASTER

From 2021 to 2023, I completed the Reiki Master training, officially recognized by the International Center of Reiki Training.

This path allowed me to deepen my understanding of energy healing, develop a strong ethical foundation, and offer Reiki sessions at the highest professional and energetic standard.

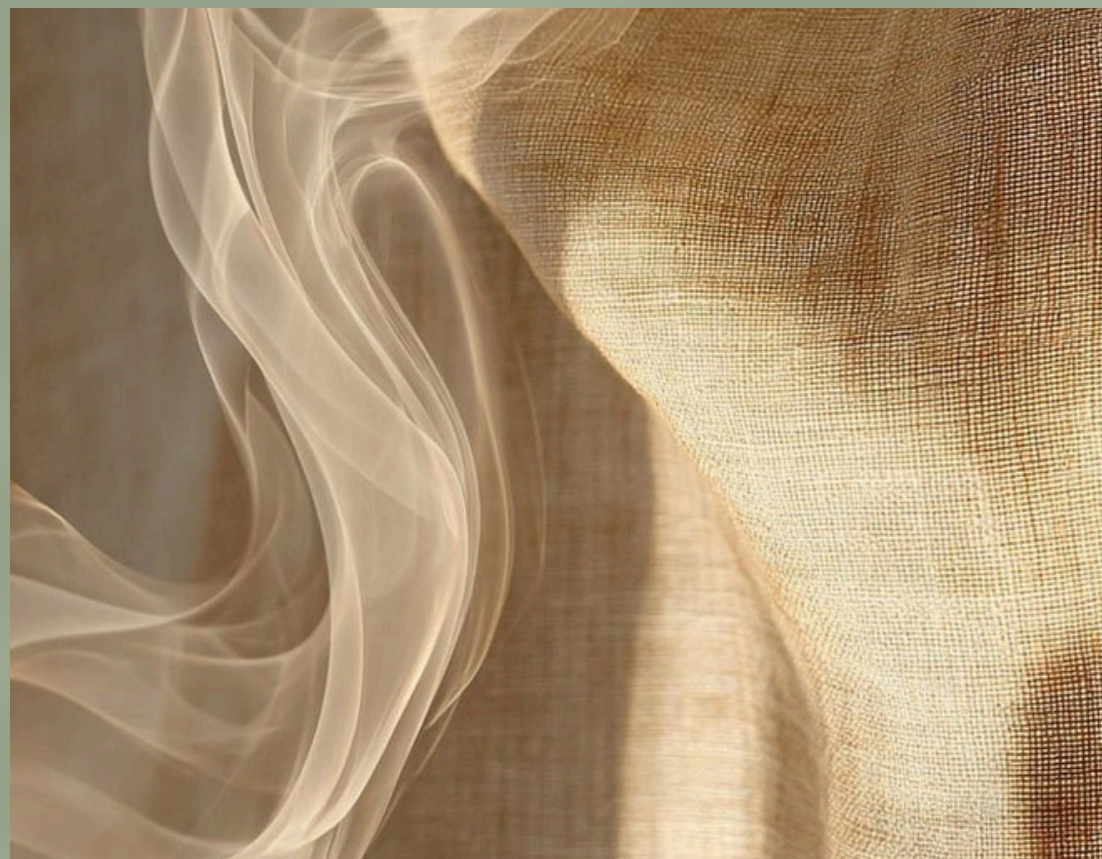

SOUND HEALER

In 2025, I became a Sound Healing Practitioner, officially recognized by Yoga Alliance. Through sound, frequency, and vibration, I guide clients into deep states of relaxation, emotional release, and energetic realignment, creating immersive healing experiences.
